

MARKS & WEINBERG, P.C.

James Hardie Gypsum, Inc. v. Inquipco

929 P.2d 903 (Nev. 1996)

Lessee orally ordered a crane which was later damaged while in the lessee's possession. The lessor of the crane sued for breach of contract based on provisions in documents (a form of D&A) signed by an employee of the lessee at the time the crane was delivered. The Supreme Court of Nevada affirmed a district court's finding that there was an oral contract with a written modification and that the lessor was entitled to investigation and attorney's fees.

Marks & Weinberg, PC is a law firm with significant experience in dealing with virtually every type of equipment and facility lease financing. The lawyers of the firm have participated in leasing financings for more than a billion dollars of equipment and are recognized throughout the industry. If you would like more cases or articles on leasing, or have any questions or comments about this Article or other leasing issues, please visit leaselawyer.com or contact Barry Marks at 205.251.8303 or Ken Weinberg at 205.251.8307.

